Almost two years ago, Coronavirus significantly interrupted our lives, challenging what we previously thought was certain and sure, eroding what we thought was solid ground. Time now feels measured as pre and post covid.

Christmas still comes as a time of interruption, Angelic interruption, as we are reminded again of one certainty that cannot break, the unconditional and enduring love of God.

In celebrating Christ's birth, we are celebrating the love God has for each of us, His children; a love that doesn't change regardless of our circumstances. We'd love to have you join us in celebrating God's love this Christmas!

We are so glad to be your parish church.
If we can ever help you, do just ask?
